1. The first part of the report describes the general situation of the country and the state of the economy.
It also mentions the main problems facing the country at the moment.

2. The second part of the report deals with the results of the survey conducted in the different regions of the country.
It shows that there are significant differences in the level of development between the different regions.

3. The third part of the report contains the conclusions of the survey and the recommendations of the committee. It suggests that the government should take measures to improve the infrastructure and to encourage investment in the private sector.

4. The fourth part of the report contains the annexes and the bibliography. The annexes include the questionnaire used for the survey and the list of the interviewees.
The bibliography lists the sources of information used in the report.

5. The fifth part of the report contains the conclusions of the
survey and the recommendations
private sector.
